Matthew Bourgaize Search Update

Since our last update on Monday, officers have continued their efforts searching for Matthew.

So far, there have been no further confirmed sightings.

Officers are continuing to pursue lines of enquiry and we are looking to identify someone seen cycling and singing loudly in Grandes Maison Road between 3.30pm and 5pm on weekdays before Christmas.

We are also looking to speak to a male seen walking along Braye Road, between Alliance and Lowlands Road on Sunday 12th January at 2.55pm, wearing a long black coat with a fluffy edged hood, grey jogging bottoms and trainers. The description closely matches that of Matthew, and we believe people are, in good faith, reporting seeing this person.

We want to make it absolutely clear they aren't in trouble, we just need to speak to them so we can eliminate those sightings from our investigation. We are asking them to please either call JESCC on 725111 or visit the Police Station. Their help will be invaluable.

We once again are asking everyone who reads this to look at the attached picture and contact us with any information you have. Let us decide how valuable your information is, don't keep it to yourself.

The search remains active.
